

THE MODERN MOVEMENT: ARCHITECTURE, DESIGN, IDEOLOGY

Saturday 3rd May

From 10.00am to 4.00pm

Brockwell Lido Users (BLU) will be running a refreshments stall serving tea, coffee, lemon squash and home-made cakes – money raised will go towards publication of a book of poems and drawings about the lido.

Students from London University of the Arts will be running an activity to decorate the paper cups from the refreshments stand with designs from vintage teacups and glasses. A specially selected group of Modern Furniture Dealers will be selling classic 20th Century furniture and objets d'art.

From 11.00am to 3.30pm

Open House will be running family activities – get a new perspective on the Lido, redesign the architecture of London and decide where you'd put the pools.

Camberwell College of Art will be running family activities – build your own furniture and make your way through an invisible maze.

At 11.00am

The architecture of Brockwell Lido – Past and Present

Local Historian Peter Bradley and Architect Jo Edwards will give a tour of the Lido exploring how it was originally built, the changes it has been through and its recent renovation.

At 2.00pm

Welcome to the Fold

Designer Carla Thomas will run a workshop about creating enclosed spaces and how they make you feel.

Sunday 4th May

From 10.00am to 4.00pm

Brockwell Lido Users (BLU) will be running a refreshments stall serving tea, coffee, lemon squash and home-made cakes – money raised will go towards publication of a book of poems and drawings about the lido.

Students from London University of the Arts will be running an activity to decorate the paper cups from the refreshments stand with designs from vintage teacups and glasses. A specially selected group of Modern Furniture Dealers will be selling classic 20th Century furniture and objets d'art.

From 11.00am to 3.30pm

Camberwell College of Art will be running family activities – build your own furniture and make your way through an invisible maze.

At 11.00am

Good Taste

Bompas & Parr will run an activity where you'll get a chance to contribute to a huge scented map of London.

At 2.00pm

Welcome to the Fold

Designer Carla Thomas will run a workshop about creating enclosed spaces and how they make you feel.